

HENTIS

One-stop decentralized finance application platform built on solana.

What is Hentis?

Hentis is a one-stop decentralized finance application platform that is making decentralized finance more accessible for everyone by providing all your Defi needs in one place. The Hentis team mission and vision is to build a future of finance that is decentralized, efficient, empowering and value-generated on solana ecosystem.

This vision include: Hentis Light-speed swap DEX, Launchpad platform and Lending protocol on Solana blockchain. To create flow of liquidity and yield-generation for traders, assists high quality project with Fundraising, Provide Defi lending and borrowing solution for investors.

Problems and Solutions

Decentralized finance (DEFI) is a rapid growing sector of the blockchain ecosystem and it brings a lot of benefits to users in the market by offering vast improvement in traditional financial system. Previously, decentralized application are mostly deployed on ethereum, the ethereum gas price have surged over the last year, further the immerse amount of dApp built on ethereum has conjested the ethereum network. This limitation has opened opportunity for newer blockchain technoligical provider to enter the fray, one of the most promising blockchain to date has been Solana.

The overall rapid growth of the Solana ecosystem with high scalable technology and inexpensive gas fee, makes Solana an ideal ecosystem to base a future of decentralized finance platform on. Hentis will combine this advantage with EVM-compatibles blockchain to create a future of decentralized finance ecosystem which consist; Hentis Light-speed swap DEX, Launchpad platform and Lending protocol. Hentis will become an ideal meeting place for traders, lenders and investors of multiple blockchain ecosystems.
